

CHIEF INSPECTOR

FAA 145 Repair Station is hiring a Chief Inspector. The candidate's responsibility will be:

- Train, direct, supervise, and assist all inspection personnel
- Perform the final acceptance of all incoming material including new parts, supplies, and the airworthiness of articles
- Proficient in using various types of mechanical and visual inspection tools
- Understands the current specifications, involving inspection tolerances, limitations and procedures
- CMM programming and operating experience required
- Past Repairman's Certificate Required

Prior management/supervisory experience required. Pre-employment drug screen. Comprehensive benefit package with 401(k).

Send resume to Janet.Young@etitulsa.com