

Test & Assembly Technician

Summary

Performs repair and overhaul; including disassembly, assembly, and test, in accordance with current technical data, regulatory, and customer requirements.

Essential Functions

- Disassembles, diagnoses, troubleshoots, repairs, services, and tests aircraft engine components per regulatory and customer requirements.
- Ensures all technical information used to accomplish the repair and overhaul of components is current.
- Strictly adheres to written work instructions and specifications. Ensures all work performed is properly recorded on the appropriate maintenance records in a timely manner.
- Ensures all inspection tools and equipment are in proper working order and properly calibrated during accomplishment of the repair and overhaul of the components. Properly maintains tools and equipment.
- Displays initiative in tackling problems and overcoming obstacles, seeks new responsibilities, generates new ideas and alternative solutions that comply with the written regulations, and practices self-development to learn new products and acquire additional job skills.
- Helps achieve department productivity goals by establishing priorities, following work procedures, and using good time management skills.
- Keeps workplace safe and clean while actively supporting safety programs, including the use of appropriate personal protective equipment.
- Initiates requisitions for stock as required for the work being performed.
- Ensures that no defective or unairworthy parts are installed in any component released by the Repair Station.
- Contributes to team effort by maintaining a positive outlook with a focus on teamwork and responsiveness to customer needs.
- Complies with all company policies and procedures, including safety requirements.
- Other duties as assigned to ensure customer needs are met.
- May require lifting, pulling and carrying up to (35) pounds.

Competencies

- Read, write legibly, and understand English.
- Perform basic math (add, subtract, multiple, and divide).
- Mechanical/technical aptitude.
- Attendance dependability.
- Ability to work independently.
- Flexibility with changes in work requirements.
- Ability to stay focused and meet deadlines.
- Attention to detail.
- Perform basic computer skills, with basic data entry.
- Understand basic terminology used in the job functional area.
- Legible handwriting.